SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

As with any investment, you'll want to carefully manage your educational expenses. Our Student Administrative Services team can help you assemble a financial aid offer that may include grants, scholarships, loans, and debt management assistance.

To determine if you are eligible for assistance, file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid at www.studentaid.gov several months before you plan to enroll. If your program begins with the summer term or later, you will need to file the 2026-27 FAFSA. Most grant and fixed-interest loan options are available only to students enrolled at least half time (six credit hours). The Mount's Title IV code is 003033. Financial aid offers are emailed to students.

LOAN AND PAYMENT OPTIONS

Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan
