STUDENT LIFE

AT THE MOUNT

WHAT IS STUDENT LIFE?

Student Life is the part of the university that focuses on making campus life a positive and enriching experience for students. This team organizes and manages activities, programs, and services that help students grow, succeed in their studies, and feel supported. They create opportunities for students to get involved in their communities, and build personal strengths while ensuring their experience aligns with the university's mission & goals. These efforts aim to help students thrive both inside and outside the classroom.

STRATEGIES FOR GETTING INVOLVED

- Contact the Office of Student Engagement and Leadership
- Check postings through flyers, email, Mount Roar!, and Campus Activities Weekly
- Go to the Campus Activities Fair
- Join/Start a student organization
- Attend on-campus events/athletics games
- Contact student organization leaders
- Mount ROAR is the Mount's student engagement platform where you can easily get involved with any organization on campus.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION (SGA)

The Student Government Association (SGA) represents the voice of the student body and serves the interests of the students. SGA strives to help students understand their rights and responsibilities as members of the Mount community and looks for opportunities to improve campus life.

The SGA is comprised of 4 Executive Officers: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Chief Marketing Officer. The three Committees of SGA are: Finance, Student Life and Welfare, and Special Events. The SGA representatives are comprised of 4 first-year students, 4 second-year students, 4 third-year students, and 4 fourth-year students. This is a model that the current SGA leaders believe will provide a greater representation of student voice and provide sustainability for leadership and initiatives over time.

SGA Programs Include:

- Allocation of student organization budgets for programs
- Hosting the Welcome Back Party, Exam Jams, Homecoming, and Student Life Awards
- Providing feedback on campus improvement projects

The Student Government Association:

- Strives to maintain effective communication between students, faculty, staff, and administration.
- Influences policy and services that directly affect student life.
- Promotes student awareness of issues that impact the University community.
- Supports student organizations and allocates funds to student events.
- Promotes improvements that benefit students.

HEART OF A LION

Student-athletes are among the most active leaders on campus, working side-by-side with coaches, faculty, and advisors to successfully balance classroom work and team commitments. The Mount competes in the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference (HCAC) and has achieved national recognition for its football, soccer, softball, women's volleyball, and wrestling programs. In addition, you'll find MSJ athletes consistently named to all-academic teams across conference, district, and national levels.
